Description

UNUSUAL & STRIKING PAIR OF TALL, VINTAGE, ORANGE, LEATHER TABLE LAMPS, 28" HIGH, INSPIRED BY JEAN MICHEL FRANK'S 1928, CROISILLON LAMP Injecting bold colour and vibrancy into the interior These lamps make a bold statement with their classic, simple tall, narrow form, and the graduating tones of their vivid orange colour The leather is another reference to Frank as it is a material he used regularly, creating a warmth soft texture. These lamps play with graduating tones of orange and one is subtly lighter than the other. They work equally well as floor standing and table lamps and could also be united with a perspex or oak block The aesthetic is viewable from all angles and perspectives, there is no front or back They are shown with parchment shades, one tapering and the other columnar. The conversion is recent so it conforms to UK PAT Electrical standards.
