Description

- Characterful open armchair injecting atmosphere into any interior - Pared down form with a contemporary feel - Tactile with original patina and thick modern leather. - Characteristic ironwork on the back - Robust and suitable for everyday use

The back uprights surmounted with finials. The design of the arms, legs and stretchers is pared down to a Minimalist form giving the geometric pierced stretcher more emphasis. The leather has been replaced with a thick, robust Cordobo brown modern leather. The back with a characteristic iron brace. Exceptional original lustrous color and patina, second half of the 17th century.
