Description

Rare example of a Spanish Vernacular rent table
Beautifully made with panelled detailing inside the open back where the tennant or client would sit to pay their dues. This is a comfortable arrangement for two people sitting at a table being used as a desk, writing or library table.
Characteristic, richly coloured and patinated, 4.5cm thick, one piece top and ironwork
Elegant shaped side stretchers and panelled ends
The fitted drawers with massive section drawer linings
