Description

- Massive tapestry with a romanticised woodland sporting scene typical of the period depicting deer, a hound and pheasants.

- Injects charm and atmosphere into the interior and soft texture and earth palette - Original size, cleaned, rebacked, a couple of tiny old repairs in the sky area which are only visible on close inspection not from a distance.

The center with a large stag protecting his doe and fawn with a pair of doe beside and a pair behind grazing. A large hunting dog on the far right on point having scented a pheasant on the ground with another in flight above and another short tailed bird in a tree. Set within a romanticised woodland scene.
