Description

Vintage, rock and roll/punk enthusiasts lamp/guitar that can easily be strummed or played. Upcycled from a vintage pink punk kick-ass guitar for the discerning rock chick. Oozing attitude and style, this guitar exudes personality from every finely tuned piece of hardware. A little over the top, maybe, but what credible guitarist wants to be a shrinking violet on stage when you can be screaming anti-socialite, standing out like the rose between the thorns. With this Axe of beauty in your grip a plethora of bone-jarring riffs are a few well timed strums and accurately placed fingers away. Packing a host of features from twin pickups to hi-gloss finish and 5 way pick up selector switch this guitar hits all the high notes, without a hint of awkwardness. The custom hi-gloss, bubble gum 'Pink Punk' body is decorated with black and white 'Condemned to Rock' graphics. Bolt-on construction. Linden basswood top, body, sides and back. Maple neck and fretboard. Chrome hardware. 22 frets. 6 steel strings. 3 single coil pick ups. 1 volume, 2 tone, 5-way pick up selector switch. Acquired from a collection along with another in purple. Mounted onto a removable 4cm high custom made, Perspex base and electrified with black 3-core flex and plug.
