Description

Surviving pieces of vernacular lighting are extremely rare and it is hard to source convincing re-creations. These are copies of a period sconce from Longfellow's Wayside Inn S Sudbury MA and have a plausible antiqued patina.

Single candle tin wall sconce with circular cresting to enhance light reflection and antiqued patina. Electrified with Girard Sudron candle lamps.

Measures: height - 36cm., 14" width - 7.5cm., 3 1/4" depth - 5.5cm.

With humble beginnings as a simple, two-room family home hosting travelers along the Old Boston Post Road in 1716, Longfellow's Wayside Inn is now the oldest inn operating in the United States.
