Description

This characterful table is of rare narrow depth of 39cm. It is characteristic of Spanish Baroque furniture with a thick single piece top, simple bold chip carved ornament and bold turnings. It has a rich lustrous patina.

The thick single plank walnut top with fine figuring. The front fitted with two short drawers decorated with chip carving and with later wooden knobs, the locks removed and patched, the freize shaped. Standing on bold ring turned legs, joined by square front and back stretchers and turned side stretchers on bun feet. Exceptional original colour and patina.
