Description

The Connoisseur, an Illustrated Magazine for Collectors. Published by Sampson Low, Marston & Co, Ltd, London 1901. Complete. 218 volumes dating from 1, September 1901-June 1988 bound in 84 books. The complete set is displayed in the bookcase illustrated.

This periodical for collectors of art and decorative arts features illustrations in monochrome and in colour, including some that are tipped in and some that fold out. Beyond the articles that it published, the magazine is also noteworthy for its stylish design. This series would make a wonderful addition to most libraries.
