

A rare, mid-18th century English delftware punch bowl inscribed 'Friendship without interest & a bowl when called for'

Sold

REF: 10575

Description

The centre decorated with a stylised floral spray and inscribed "Friendship without Interest and a Bowl when called for", surrounded by an interlocking arc border. The outside with a chinoiserie landscape scene of a man fishing. Decorated in blue on a pale blue glaze. In original condition. Probably London, circa 1785. 3065605