

A rare, mid-18th century, English, delftware plate with a scalloped rim

Sold

Description

Decorated with a chinoiserie landscape scene of a man with a stick walking in front of a pavilion amongst trees and fences. The border decorated with 2 repeats of bianco-sopra-bianco leaves and pine cones. The back with three whiplash markings on the outer-rim. Painted In blue, manganese and yellow. In original condition. Probably Bristol, Redcliff Back, Richard Frank, third quarter of the 18th century.

Delftware (Archer) B 87-90. Diameter : 26.00 cm. English Delftware (Austen) 347. 70401197